Instructions/definitions

Norway has implemented the OECD Common Reporting Standard (CRS) and U.S. FATCA in the national legislation. As a consequence SKAGEN is required to collect certain information about an account holder's tax residency, and report the information in this form to the Norwegian Tax Authority.

If your tax residence is outside Norway, SKAGEN is legally obliged to pass on the information in this form to the Norwegian Tax Authority and subsequently also report information about financial accounts held by you as a client/unit holder on an annual basis. The Norwegian Tax Authority will pass the information on to the relevant local tax authority.

SKAGEN can not provide tax advice nor determine the tax residency of the account holder. If you have questions on how to determine your tax residency status, please contact a tax advisor or the local tax authorities.

Account Holder	The Account Holder is the person listed or identified as the holder of a Financial Account with SKAGEN.
Beneficial owner	The term Beneficial owner refers to the natural persons who directly or indirectly, alone or together with close family members, own or control more than 25% of an entity.
CRS	CRS ("Common Reporting Standard") is an information standard for the automatic exchange of information developed by the OECD, under which countries that have concluded Competent Authority Agreements (i.e. an agreement which affects the local tax administration) must exchange financial account information between jurisdictions.
FATCA	FATCA ("Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act") is a United States tax legislation that is aimed at identifying U.S. Persons that hold account(s) or financial assets outside of the United States.
Financial Account	A Financial Account is an account maintained by a Financial Institution (SKAGEN).
Politically Exposed Person (PEP)	A Politically Exposed Person is an individual who is or has been entrusted with a prominent public function (for example Heads of State or of government, senior politicians, senior government, judicial or military officials, senior executives of state owned corporations, important political party officials) in Norway or other countries, and family members and close associates of the PEP. For more information please see Art. 3 (9) Directive (EU) https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32015L0849&from=EN
Tax Residency	Individuals are regarded as tax resident in the country where they are liable to pay tax on the basis of residency or similar following the country's local laws. Each country has its own set of rules for determining tax residency, but in general, the tax residence is the same as the permanent residence. For more information about tax residency rules in a certain jurisdiction, please visit the OECD Automatic Exchange Portal at: http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-residency/#d.en.347760 . If you have any questions about how to determine your tax residency status you should consult a tax advisor or your local tax authority.
Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)	The term "TIN" refers to Taxpayer Identification Number or a functional equivalent in the absence of a TIN. A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an Entity and is used to identify the individual or Entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Further details of acceptable TINs can be found at the OECD Automatic Exchange Portal here: http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/tax-identification-numbers/#d.en.347759 .
U.S. Citizenship/Residency	You are generally considered to have U.S. Tax Residency if you are resident in the United States; are a U.S. Citizen (including those with dual citizenships); if you are an owner of a U.S. Residence; or have a valid work permit in the U.S. ("Green Card").
