

Performance Commentary

The global real estate market ended the month in positive territory. The fund has had its new benchmark for one month now, and we continue to gain ground both in absolute and relative terms. We also launched Luxembourg-listed funds during October. The German office operator Aroundtown agreed an all-stock merger with peer TLG Immobilien. During the month, we entered 2 new US holdings: Health Care Trust of America and Brookdale Senior Living. Both companies have assets within the health care segment and are aligned with our focus on long-term secular trends, in this case, the ageing US population. We also took a position in the German residential operator LEG Immobilien while trimming our position in Deutsche Wohnen due to ongoing uncertainty around the Berlin rental market. With some exceptions, the sector has risen since the start of 2019. Despite this, there are many exciting opportunities to be found in the global real estate space. The sector remains attractive thanks to its stable and rising top-line, low cost financing and solid cash flows. SKAGEN m2 is well positioned due to its philosophy and disciplined stock selection.

The fund gives access to a normally inaccessible global real estate market. The fund selects low-priced, high-quality real estate companies from around the world.

The objective is to provide the best possible risk adjusted return.

The fund is suitable for those with at least a five year investment horizon.
