

Performance Commentary

The increased volatility in August brought with it further uncertainty around global growth and trade war concerns. SKAGEN Vekst lagged the combined index over the course of August. Asset classes which have historically been associated with less volatility and a risk-off sentiment rose to new highs and the favourite asset among the risk averse – gold – rose to a 5-year high. The Nordic markets remained mainly unchanged, except the Danish market where sectors associated with more defensive attributes, like pharma, provided a safe haven for equity investors. We took advantage of the volatile market and reduced our exposure to Carlsberg after the share price rose approx. 50% year to date. Here investors continue to appreciate the potential for continued growth in Asia and improved profitability. We have gradually reduced our exposure as the stock has approached our price target, but still think there is more to be gained from the Danish brewery giant. We also reduced our holdings in the Danish giants Novo Nordisk and DSV after strong share price performance on the back of quarterly figures. We increased our exposure to selective EM names where we see strong balance sheets and solid business models. Largest amongst these were the Chinese mobile operator China Mobile.

The fund selects low-priced, high-quality companies in the Nordic region and from around the world.

The objective is to provide the best possible risk adjusted return.

The fund is suitable for those with at least a five year investment horizon.

Effective 1/1/2014, the Fund's investment mandate changed from investing a minimum of 50% of its funds in Norway to investing a minimum of 50% of its funds in the Nordic countries. This means that returns prior to the change were achieved under different circumstances than they are today. Prior to 1/1/2014, the benchmark index was an evenly composed benchmark index consisting of the Oslo Stock Exchange Benchmark Index (OSEBX) and the MSCI All Country World. The benchmark index prior to 1/1/2010 was the Oslo Stock Exchange Benchmark Index (OSEBX).
